

Prohibited Use Policy

Last updated: 5 January 2026

A. How to interpret this Prohibited Use Policy

All terms used in this Prohibited Use Policy, which are defined in the Binance Terms of Use (the “Terms of Use”), have the same meaning and construction as in the Terms of Use.

To the extent that you are a customer or user of our services, this Prohibited Use Policy applies together with any terms and other contractual documents, including but not limited to any agreements we may have with you.

Your Binance Account must not be used in a manner that violates public interests, public morals, or the legitimate interests of others, including any actions that would interfere with, disrupt, negatively affect, or prevent other users from using Binance Services.

B. Abuse of Services

Utilizing Binance Services in a manner leading to the depreciation or disruption in the quality of services or tampering with other users' experiences is strictly prohibited including engaging in activities that contravene laws and regulations, are harmful, threatening, defamatory, obscene, infringing, insulting, or otherwise violate the legal rights of others. For example, this includes without limitation the promotion, facilitation, generation, or distribution of spam, and the generation of content for deceptive or fraudulent activities, scams, phishing or malware, market abuse or manipulation (including pump and dump schemes, self-trading, front running, quote stuffing, spoofing, layering, wash-trading or matched trading), the dissemination of false or misleading information with intent to influence or otherwise distort prices, coordinated or group-based misconduct (such as using multiple accounts to evade risk controls or distort market conditions), and any fraudulent or dishonest conduct (such as providing false, misleading or incomplete information or using fake identities).

C. Financial Misconduct

The execution of fraudulent transactions, trading in banned goods including narcotics or certain controlled substances or other products that present a risk to consumer safety, items that encourage, promote, facilitate or instruct others to engage in illegal activity, sale of goods and services that are illegally imported or exported, stolen goods including digital and virtual goods, regulated products such as tobacco, e-cigarettes, age restricted goods or services, weapons and munitions, money laundering, funding terrorist activities, or engagement in other forms of financial irregularities on the Binance Platform is strictly forbidden, including without limitation market manipulation, misuse of Binance Services (such as exploiting system vulnerabilities or pricing anomalies), coordinated trading strategies to disadvantage others or evade limits, and any fraudulent or dishonest conduct as described above.

D. False Representation

Any actions that imitate or impersonate any person or entity, falsely claim affiliations, or involve unauthorized access to the accounts of others are strictly prohibited. The use of Binance Services for resale or commercial purposes, including conducting transactions on behalf of other persons or entities, is prohibited unless expressly authorized by Binance in writing.

E. Restricted Persons and Prohibited Countries

The Binance Platform should not be used in contravention of any jurisdiction's sanctions or export control laws or regulations. This includes prohibited activities involving Restricted Persons or territories on the List of Prohibited Countries, as determined in Binance's sole discretion.

F. Violations Impacting Public Interest

The use of the Binance Platform to conduct activities that harm the public interest is unacceptable. Such activities include those potentially harmful to society, spreading misinformation, or influencing societal welfare.

G. Violations of Public Morals

Activities considered a transgression against public morals including, but is not limited to, the creation, distribution or possession of items considered obscene and sexually oriented materials, adult content and services or child sexual abuse material, which includes content, materials, or information linked to the sexual exploitation or abuse of minors, are prohibited in accordance with applicable laws.

H. Promotion of Hate

Promotion of hate, discrimination, and violence in any form, including hate speech based on race, gender identity, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, disability or any other characteristic protected under applicable law is prohibited.

I. Access and Security Violations

Use of any deep linking, web crawlers, bots, spiders, automated devices, programs, scripts, algorithms, or similar manual processes to access, obtain, copy, monitor, replicate, or bypass the navigational structure or presentation of Binance Services, except as expressly permitted, is prohibited. Attempting to access any part of the Binance Platform without authorization, including by hacking, password mining, or other unlawful means, is strictly forbidden. Probing, scanning, or testing vulnerabilities, violating security or authentication measures, reverse look-up or tracking of other users' information, imposing an unreasonable load on Binance's infrastructure, interfering with the normal operation of Binance Services or transactions, and forging headers or impersonating to disguise identity or message origin are all prohibited.

Users must not modify, adapt, combine, disassemble, decompile, reverse-engineer, copy, replicate, transmit, alter, or otherwise exploit any part of the Binance Platform. Introducing viruses, malware, or any harmful code, using anonymizing proxies or disposable emails to access services, bypassing robot exclusion protocols or any action that may cause Binance to lose services from its providers is prohibited.

Violations of this Prohibited Use Policy are seen as serious offenses, for which Binance reserves the right to take appropriate actions against the offenders, including termination and suspension of access to Binance Services or legal action, if deemed necessary.

Any violation of this Prohibited Use Policy should be reported to legal@binance.com.
